For Teachers

For rules and variations of how to play this and other games check out the Games and Activities section of the website.

You can put the Japanese in the spaces in order to the students more of a hint about what to say, but also make sure that you pre-teach each of the activities before you start, use either flashcards or gestures, and when you feel that the students are comfortable with the vocabulary you can hand out these sheets and before you start you can check the students knowledge one more time.

Then start the game.

When using these worksheets in your class be aware that they are the worksheets that I used in my class printed here as is and as such use vocabulary and grammar appropriate to the students that I was teaching at the time. If you plan to use this or any other sheet in your class make sure that you have pre-taught all the vocabulary necessary or preferably, use the ideas here and rewrite the worksheet for your specific students needs.

Most of all,

Enjoy.
