

Problem 1

My boyfriend asked me to marry him. I love him very much and want to say yes, but he's 25 and I'm only 16. We have been dating for 1 year. I'm too scared to talk to my parents about it.

Problem 2

I hate school. I'm quite clever so I can do the subjects OK but I always feel stressed at school and what to quit. I am often absent but my parents don't care. Only my close friends understand my feelings.

What should I do?
