

Problem 3

My family and I always argue. I never like being around them. My parents shout at me and my little sister is very noisy, messy and selfish. I am thinking about running away from home.

What should I do?

Problem 4

I'm love with a girl that I have known for 3 years. The problem is that she is my best friend and I'm too scared to tell her. She has a boyfriend but he is not good for her and I think he cheats on her, too.

What should I do?
